DEPARTMENT OF RESOURCES AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
DIVISION OF TRAVEL AND TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

The New Hampshire countryside boasts beautiful vineyards, apple orchards and rustic farms. Picture perfect pastures, home to grass-fed cows and hand-milked goats, lure you to experience the culinary wonders of the area—wine and cheese, a match made in heaven. Taste award-winning fruit and grape wines at local wineries and sample delicious, fresh and aged cheeses at local dairy farms. Meet the winemakers and dairy farmers who supply local markets and you will appreciate their passion for farming. Take time to shop at one of the many farmers' markets where you will find local products, while savoring New Hampshire's stunning scenery, history, great food and comfortable accommodations.

The New Hampshire wine and cheese trails, and the fine restaurants and lodgings along each trail, extend a warm welcome to travelers. New Hampshire is committed to bringing the very best from farm-to-table in a movement known as "Farm to Restaurant Connection," a collaboration between growers, producers and chefs. Choose one of the many restaurants to wine and dine, and enjoy a variety of mouth-watering local products. Stay at a unique B&B or a renowned inn, resting up for a new day of exploring. Visit New Hampshire for a continuous adventure in taste...

NEAR COAST TRAIL

The largest and oldest wineries

in the state are located near the coast where grapes thrive from the milder temperatures and longer growing season. Start your tour at CANDIA

VINEYARDS in Candia, one of New England's most-awarded boutique vineyards, situated on some of the oldest farmland in New Hampshire. A forgotten grape, Diamond, was brought back into production at Candia Vineyards, where it delights the unsuspecting with an intense aroma and a fruity off-dry style. There are also many other fine wines to try here. Tours and tastings are held most days, but it's best to call first for availability.

Drive toward the seacoast and you'll find ZORVINO

VINEYARDS in Sandown. Wine is made here from grapes grown on 80 acres of land as well as from grapes grown in California, Chile and Italy. In addition, their award-winning wines made from local New Hampshire fruit are growing in popularity. The vineyard offers tastings and tours, and the retail store sells Zorvino food products made from wine. Tasty wine-maker dinners are scheduled throughout the year, and the winery is available for private parties and weddings.

Closer to the coast, you'll arrive at JEWELL TOWNE VINEYARDS on the shores of the scenic Powow River in South Hampton. Learn the art of wine making and sample delicious estate-made wines in a rustic post and beam barn that serves as the tasting room, winery, gift shop and art gallery. Jewell Towne's award-winning wines (over 115 medals to date) include many traditional favorites, but their most noteworthy accomplishments come from cool climate hybrid grape varieties such as Seyval, Maréchal Foch, Leon Millot, Vignoles, and Vidal. Open year-round!

Practically neighbors with Jewell Towne, SWEET BABY VINEYARD in Kensington creates handcrafted wines produced from grapes and locally grown fruit. All of their fruit wines are made from 100% New Hampshire grown fruits while the red and white wines are made from grapes grown in their vineyard, as well as from grapes grown around the world. The tasting room also sells many NH made products and wine accessories. Open year-round, Saturdays and Sundays 12-5 p.m. and during the week by appointment.

Further along, FLAG HILL WINERY & DISTILLERY in Lee proudly produces red and white wines made from grapes grown on their 120 acre property. Spectacular views of the state's largest vineyard make an excellent backdrop for weddings, picnics and strolling walks or tours. Learn how vodka is distilled and enjoy tasting a wide variety of red, white, fruit and dessert wines and port or delight your taste buds with such spirits as Sugar Maple Liqueur. Open Wednesday through Sunday, year-round.

Just a few minutes away is HICKORY NUT FARM, a family-owned and operated farm, also in Lee. Sample several types of homemade goat cheese and the "yo-goat-gurt." All cheese products are aged in the farm's very own cheese cave, insuring a constant temperature for the cheese to age at the peak of perfection naturally.

VALLEY VINEYARDS, ORCHARDS & DAIRIES

As you move up and down the western border of the state, you can feel the history, rich agricultural traditions and unparalleled beauty of the Connecticut River Valley.

Begin your ride at BOGGY MEADOW FARM in Walpole where they transform raw milk from a dairy herd of Holsteins into sumptuous cheese from old Alpine recipes. The buttery Baby Swiss tastes nutty and sweet, and the Fiddlehead Tomme is cave-aged for over six months, creating a rich flavor. Visitors are welcome for tours and to sample and purchase cheese directly from the farm. Be sure to call ahead; hours vary.

From Boggy Meadows Farms, head uphill. Overlooking the Connecticut River Valley, WALPOLE MOUNTAIN VIEW WINERY AT BARNETT HILL VINEYARD crafts a wide selection of fine red, white, and blush wines, catering to all tastes from very dry to dessert sweet. Their philosophy of exclusively using the over two dozen varieties of French-American and Cold-Climate grapes grown on their 27-acre farm makes them the only completely "estate" winery in New Hampshire. Nestled in the vineyard is a newly-constructed quaint barn, which is home to their winery, indoor and outdoor tasting areas, and gift shop. Spectacular mountain vistas toward the Green Mountains of Vermont and their award-winning 'La Crescent' white varietal wine are worth driving miles to enjoy.

Wind your way up Route 10 to SILVER MOUNTAIN FARMS in Lempster, where they make traditional hard cider and all-natural fruit wines with delicious apples from nearby orchards. Taste the delightful honey apple wine in two styles—semi-sweet and sweet—along with blueberry, black cherry and raspberry wines. They are open weekends year-round for tours and tastings; call ahead on weekdays.

Head north to HAUNTING WHISPER VINEYARDS, a 75-acre property in Danbury, with panoramic sloping views of the surrounding mountain landscapes. The winery has the only retail store open 5 days a week in the Lakes Region and the free tasting room is open Wednesday through Sunday, May through December.

Drive north to FARNUM HILL CIDERS AT POVERTY LANE ORCHARDS in Lebanon. Tasters are welcome to stroll the apple orchards and experience more than 100 varieties of heirloom, antique and cider apples. Be sure to try Farnum Hill's world-class ciders—dry, sparkling and lightly alcoholic. Open seven days a week Labor Day through Halloween; call in advance for exact picking conditions and hours.

Continue through the upper valley on Route 10 to ROBIE FARM in Piermont. Taste the Piermont, Swaledale, Gruyere and Manch-Vegas cheeses all made from raw milk, aged on wood and with natural rinds. The farm provides tours and a large retail store selling cheese, raw milk, ice cream, baked goods and other local products. Open seven days a week, all year long.

Nestled in the foothills of the White Mountains, in the village of Landaff, sits LANDAFF CREAMERY, a small, unique farmstead cheese creamery producing its award-winning, signature Landaff Cheese from a traditional Welsh recipe. Stop by to take a self-guided tour of the creamery or take some Landaff home for yourself.

Continue north to MEADOWSTONE FARM, a small, diverse farm growing a variety of vegetables and raising chickens, pigs and goats. Enjoy the farm-fresh goat cheese for purchase during your stop.

Finally head north to NORTH COUNTRY ORCHARD in Whitefield, an apple orchard and winery producing Crooked Tree Ciders and Yankee Bee Honey. Open weekends for tours and tastings from mid-September to the end of October. This destination is perfect for a scenic drive during New Hampshire's brilliant fall foliage season!

MEANDERING THE MERRIMACK & LAKES

Located in the heart of the state, Manchester serves as a gateway to the Merrimack Valley and Lakes Region.

Begin your journey at the family-owned boutique winery, FULCHINO VINEYARD, in Hollis. Stop by and experience the fruits of a tradition handed down through the generations and enjoy one of the Signature Blend wines available for purchase.

Very close by, LaBELLE WINERY in Amherst is an award-winning boutique winery transforming local fruit into spectacular wine. Picked at its peak, then pressed and fermented the same day, the fruit results in exceptionally fresh and balanced wine. The ravishing Red Raspberry wine and Jalapeño Pepper wine explode with intense aromas and flavors. Tours, tastings and monthly open houses are offered. Winery visits are by appointment only.

In Gilmanton Iron Works, HEART SONG FARM offers fresh and mold-ripened goat cheeses, as well as delicious goat milk year-round from their family-run dairy. Baby goats make visits to this scenic setting fun for the whole family. Best to call ahead for tours!

Arriving in the Lakes area, STONE GATE VINEYARD in Gilford produces wine from native and French cold climate grapes. A few popular wines are Aurore, Marechal Foch, Leon Millet and Seyval. Complimentary tours and tastings are offered on weekends, June through November, or by appointment.

With dramatic vista views, travel along the northern edge of Lake Winnepesaukee to THE SANDWICH CREAMERY, in Center Sandwich. The small creamery produces cow's milk farmstead cheeses in many varieties—aged raw milk, cheddar, brie and Caerphilly, to name a few—as well as a variety of soft cheese spreads. They have thirty flavors of fresh ice cream and sorbet to enjoy while relaxing in the colorful flower gardens. The shop is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, on the honor system. Tours are by appointment, but you can visit the cows anytime.

A little further north, you'll find AGAPE HOMESTEAD FARM, where visitors can tour the farm, watch the milking process (by appointment), sample cheeses and goat milk and visit the farm store. The registered goat dairy farm produces goat cheese, milk and soap for purchase.

Continue around the southeast side of the lake to VIA LACTEA FARM in Brookfield, a classic farm store and goat dairy. Products include chevre, feta, aged cheeses, yogurt and raw milk. Visit the farm store for their amazing homemade maple syrup and other farm fresh products. Visitors are welcome Wednesday through Sunday 9 a.m.-6 p.m. from March to December. Call the farm or check the website for special events. In and around the Lakes Region, you'll find lovely rustic style cottages to spend a night or an entire season...
